Isn't it the Clothing that gives you long and the best wear that money is to be saved on?

Whether it means two or six months, is that hard to find out?

You're sure of a high price, of poor work, and poor style when you buy poor quality. Did you intend your money to do but it's a shallow stock, being dedunlimited to a stock is it inited; he intends to sell you something; to sell you what that?

You're sure to get the better clothing in every other way for getting it dependable in quality and make. But try the slate and slate-pencil on it. Take it that way. Set down the day you get your clothing; the day it is thought worn long enough.

Compare its months of service and its cost. Set the results alongside those obtained from inferior goods. There's nothing to go ahead of downright figuring to get at the facts of and the house was fired to conceal the what clothing costs you. We dare to tell what our qualities are. We welcome you to examine workmanship and trimmings. We would have to turn a new and unfamiliar leaf to have any but lowest prices.
